COMMON QUESTIONS:

Can I use your photos and/or recipe on my blog?

We kindly ask that you do not re-publish our recipes, but if you are a blogger or other media outlet, you are welcome to use one photo along with a clear link back to the recipe on athomewithrebecka.com

Can I buy ad space on At Home with Rebecka?

Nope, we don't have ads.

Can I contribute an article or recipe?

Thanks, but right now we only feature content that we create ourselves.

I'd like to become a sponsor, can you send me more information about your availability and rates?

Yep, absolutely, email me and we'll chat.

Can I send you my product in exchange for a post?

Our posts take a considerable amount of time to create so we do not accept products in exchange for coverage. If you'd like to become a sponsor, see above.
