

FOOD FIGHT WRITE BLOGGER SUMMIT 2016

My bags are packed and I'm ready for Food Fight Write Blogger Summit 2016 held in Orange Beach, Alabama Nov. 6-9, 2016.

Last years Blogger Summit was one of the best experiences I've ever had. I met some of the world's leading food and lifestyle bloggers, Food Sport Champions, and made some very special memories with like-minded food enthusiasts.

MMA Creative treated us like royalty not to mention, I won the first ever Blogger Recipe Challenge. If this years Blogger Summit proves to be anything like last year, we are in for a real treat!

Here's just a snippet of our agenda for the 2016 World Food Championships Food Fight Write Blogger Summit.

What makes the Blogger Summit truly unique is how bloggers are INTEGRATED into the World Food Championships experience. Bloggers enjoy three jam packed days of field trips galore and food beyond belief; luxury accommodations... for FREE at the beach front Turquoise Place, delivered by Spectrum Resorts is a premier resort destination on the beach in Orange Beach, Alabama with luxurious amenities in a condominium-style setting. Condominium units offer spacious floor plans with floor-to-ceiling views and grand balconies, and the resort boasts a 450-foot-long heated lazy river, indoor and outdoor saltwater pools, saunas and many other attractions.

We'll be treated to some fabulous cooking demonstrations including an epic pyrotechnic 'Brotorch Cooking' demo from Hormel Chili and Chef, Eric Harland. Check out the awesome video HERE!

Bloggers will prepare a sandwich recipe utilizing returning sponsor Saucy Mama products and glean valuable tips from one of the UK's finest food stylists and photographers, Michael Sewell, in a hands-on food styling session. I'm making a Orange Habanero Pesto Italiano Wrap. I can't wait to see how much better my sandwich will look after a day of food styling tips and help from Michael.

Happy Egg's Jen Danby will be there to share about their mission to spread happiness, from the hens it cares for to the consumer who wants to buy more humanely produced products, and their unique commitment to clarity and honesty in the egg aisle during an insider session with their happy teams.

Bloggers will tour of one of Alabama's finest purveyors of farmed raised oysters, Murder Point Oyster Farm, as well as, Graham Shrimp Company, where we'll and eat a delicious traditional Low Country Shrimp Boil.

Finally, last year attendees competed as chef contestants; this year, bloggers will judge the opening round of the World Dessert Championship after becoming certified in WFC's proprietary E.A.T. Scoring Methodology.

That's not all Mike McCloud and his team have planned for us but a good representation of one of the Worlds finest Blogger conferences hosted by MMA Creative and #WorldFoodChampionships2016.
