RECIPE #2

BLØTEKAKE (NORWEGIAN CREAM CAKE)

BLØTEKAKE (NORWEGIAN CREAM CAKE) by Manuela Kjeilen. All photos courtesy of passionforbaking.com, Lise Sternersen, and created by Manuela Kjelien (unless otherwise noted).

This stunning creation is the work of Norwegian born award-winning blogger and “Master Home Baker” – Manuela Kjeilen.

(You can read more about Manuela and the Contests Official Rule HERE)

Attached to each of the six recipes sent to me by Manuela were notes written by her as they related to each of the recipes. Below is what Manuela said about Recipe #2:

The second recipe is a Bløtecake (Norwegian Cream Cake) typical of a cake you would see at bakeries in Norway! Contestants can just fill it with strawberries rather than all of the fruits that I used. This is how we do cakes in Norway and I love this cake.

Manuela you're so right! Norwegians really know how to make a delicious cake! This beautiful cake is filled with all my favorite things: pastry cream, mascarpone whipped cream, chopped walnuts, dark chocolate, and a mixture of fresh fruits. This fabulous recipe is perfect for any summertime gathering, but would look great at your red, white, and blue 4th of July party. I love that the American and Norwegian flags share the same colors!

Some Thoughts on My Second Bake

I feel more accomplished as a baker after the first challenge last week. I've had less anxiety about making a traditional sponge for the Norwegian Cream Cake; yet I worry about my lack of technique in the decorating department. I've never made a layered cake that didn't look like the Leaning Tower of Pisa; plus I suffer from a lack of understanding when it comes to executing the perfect slice.

The use of acetate or plastic cake collar is a new technique for me as well. If you don't own acetate cake collars, you can substitute with heavy plastic wrap and use large spring form pans and outer clamping ring for the adjustable cake ring step.

This is going to be a fun bake, and I hope you all will bake along.

My Rendition of Manuela's BLØTEKAKE NORWEGIAN CREAM CAKE

You'll notice my piping on the sides of the cake are too close together, jagged, and don't look finished where the cake top meets the piped sides. You'll also see that the top of my cake resembles a mosaic or road map rather than the 6 perfect triangle slices on Manuela's cake. My rendition of the cake is pretty, but not correct if we're trying to replicate Manuel's recipe. My decoration looks more like a mosaic than Manuela's 6 perfectly piped triangles

My Rendition of Manuela's BLØTEKAKE NORWEGIAN CREAM CAKE

Leaning Tower of BLØTEKAKE (NORWEGIAN CREAM CAKE) by Rebecka Evans

My slice is leaning to the side as it almost fell onto the floor on its way from the cake to the plate.

Manuel's recipe offers the option to use 8 or 9 inch springform pan or two – 3X8 – inch round baking tins, or 10 -inch springform pan. Recipes for both options are listed. I opted to use a 10 inch springform pan to bake my sponge. I over baked the cake (again), so I had to use more orange juice on the slices to moisten them. I also used an additional 4 cups of heavy cream to make my whipped icing. Finally, I used Manuel's Vanilla Frosting made with mascarpone. You can use your own favorite recipe for whipped icing, or you can find Manuela's recipe HERE

I love the color and textures of this cake. The vanilla cream is the best I've ever made. I could eat an entire bowl of the luscious cream in one sitting. The decadent whipped cream tastes so fresh, and is the perfect cover for my mistakes despite my messy execution. My rendition of Manuela's BLØTEKAKE NORWEGIAN CREAM CAKE isn't a "masterpiece," but it's not bad for my second bake.

BLØTEKAKE (NORWEGIAN CREAM CAKE) NOTES

1. You will need a 9-inch spring form pan, parchment paper, cooking spray, a metal and plastic cake collar, and acetate film. I found the metal adjustable collar and acetate cake collars at a local baking shop. Acetate is sold per piece in large sheets. If you don't care to spend money on a metal adjustable cake ring, you can use the clean, dry ring from a springform pan. (You can watch Manuela's Video HERE to get a better idea of this technique)
2. You will need medium disposable piping bags and a Wilton 1 M piping tip.
3. When the recipe calls for chopped dark chocolate, I used my favorite dark chocolate bar which is 70% cocoa.
4. The recipe conversions from European Measurements are Manuela's US converted recipes or were calculated with the iPhone APP "Kitchen

Pro”

5. The recipe calls for 2 cups whipped cream to fill the cake. I made an additional 4 cups of whipped cream to decorate my cake using Manuela’s Mascarpone Whipped Frosting. You can find the recipe HERE

WHAT I LOVE ABOUT THIS CHALLENGE

I have pushed myself to work outside my comfort zone and I’ve just added two more delicious recipes to my baking repertoire: Norwegian Sponge Cake and Vanilla Pastry Cream. The list keeps getting longer and my skills are growing with every delicious recipe.

7. Whisk the mixture vigorously for 2 minutes, while boiling, until the cornstarch dissolves completely.
8. Remove the pan from the heat.

ARE YOU A MASTER BAKER OR DISASTER BAKER? CONTEST & GIVEAWAY ANNOUNCEMENT

Welcome to my latest contest and giveaway: "Are you a Master or a Disaster Baker?" Let's find out!

*Self-proclaimed "Disaster Baker" Rebecka Evans hosts this bake along contest and giveaway. TV personality www.passionforbaking.com Manuela Kjeilen will be handpicking 6 recipes for the competition. One lucky first place winner will walk away with a Ankarsrum USA stand mixer and second place will receive The Baking Book, written by Passion for Baking's Manuela Kjeilen. Are you ready to take the challenge?*

A Photo of Manuela Kjeilen – Norwegian born award-winning blogger, "Master Home Baker," and my inspiration for this challenge.

Manuela is as beautiful on the inside as she is on the outside. She is the writer, baker, and photographer behind passionforbaking.com [Manuela's goal is] "to inspire you to bake and just have fun in the kitchen."

I met Manuela for the first time in November 2015 at the First Annual World Food

Championships Blogger Summit in Orlando, Florida; where she was one of the Summits keynote speakers. Manuela shared her story and expressed her passion for baking. During the time we spent at the Summit, I assisted Manuela impromptu at one of her cooking demos and we quickly became friends. It's amazing how cooking can bring people together.

I learned that Manuela's life story was filled with disappointments and adversity; and I was inspired by her ability to heal and show grace. Months before Manuela began her baking blog, her husband suffered a severe stroke. Manuela's family lost everything, including the business her husband worked painstakingly to build. Manuel turned her passion for baking into a business to provide for her family by posting photos of her beautifully baked desserts to Facebook; eventually leading to her decision to start a blog in March of 2010. It says a lot about Manuela's character, especially as a women that did not graduate high school and suffers from dyslexia, to overcome adversity and use her strength and constant faith to build a successful business for the purpose of providing for her family.

Passion for Baking

passionforbaking.com Lise Sternersen and created by Manuela Kjelian,*

Although she started her business in the midst of caring for her husband and family, she found comfort in baking. Manuela enlisted help as she started her blog, as a friend corrected her spelling and helped her with posts. Manuela also asked her growing fan-base for feedback and input. Manuela even visited neighbors, proposing that if they brought eggs and flour she could bake something for them to feature on her blog. When Manuela speaks of her road to success, she explains how she managed the struggle of providing for her family: "Taking one day at a time, I kept going forward and one year later I received an award for Norway's most BELOVED BLOGGER". Since that time Manuela was offered a book deal and her first cookbook, Love, Manuela, is the namesake for this contest. Manuela has also published eight books, and her TV show, Manuela's Sweet Temptations, is a huge success in Norway.

I am blessed to have met Manuela 4 years ago, and I'm proud to call her my friend. I hope to do her recipes justice as I take on the difficult challenge of baking like Manuela.

Things You Should Know About Me:

I am an award winning home-cook and a self proclaimed DISASTER baker!

As a savory cook, I enjoy adding a pinch of one thing and a pinch of something else, which doesn't work so well in baking because you're supposed to measure every ingredient perfectly. I'm impatient! I hate waiting for a cake to bake all the while I'm opening and closing the oven just to get a peek at my creation. Therefore due to a lack of self control, I almost always end up eating what I've baked without allowing it to cool long enough to get the darn thing frosted. I also struggle with the patience and artistry required to decorate a beautiful cake. I have been known to make a delicious pie, and I have a few go-to deserts I make on a regular basis, but those are easy to make because I have mastered those recipes. However as Manuela says, "Practice, practice, practice!" The more you bake the more you learn." So that's my plan! I intend to challenge myself and aspire to succeed in the same way Manuela thrived and excelled until she became the wonderful woman I know today.

I hope you will join me and challenge yourself too!
